

Schedule 'B'

Solid Waste Not Eligible for Refuse Disposal (Prohibited Materials)

(per Bylaw 4281 – Curbside Collection of Refuse, Recycling, Food Waste & Yard Waste)

Prohibited materials include but are not limited to the following:

- Agricultural waste;
- Animal excrement not contained in a sealed bag;
- Automobile bodies and parts;
- Barrels or drums in excess of 205 litres (45 gallons), whether full or empty;
- Biomedical waste;
- Dead animals;
- Demolition, land clearing and construction (DLC) waste;
- Electronics and electrical products, including batteries;
- Gypsum;
- Hazardous waste;
- Biomedical waste;
- Inert fill materials including soil, sod, gravel, concrete and asphalt;
- Lead-acid batteries;
- Liquids and semi-solid wastes and sludge;
- Log yard waste;
- Metal household or commercial appliances;
- Noxious matter;
- Oil containers, oil filters, paint products, solvents and flammable liquids;
- Pesticide products;
- Pharmaceuticals;
- Polychlorinated Biphenyls (PCBs);
- Pressurized tanks and canisters (ex. propane tanks, butane canisters)
- Radioactive and reactive waste;
- Refuse that is flammable, explosive on fire or smoldering;
- Refuse that would cause undue risk of injury or occupational disease to any person or that would otherwise contravene the Occupational Health and Safety Regulations;
- Tires; and
- Any single object weighing more than ten (10) kilograms or measuring more than one (1) metre in size in any direction;
- Materials accepted through one of the following collection streams (refer to Schedule A – List of Accepted Materials);
  - Food waste
  - Recyclables
  - Yard waste

Please contact the City of Salmon Arm at 250-803-4000 or email info@salmonarm.ca for further assistance.

The City also utilizes the Recycle Coach app, which provides detailed “what-goes-where” information for any type of material or item, along with other useful functionality related to the curbside collection program and disposal of waste or other unwanted items. This app can be downloaded to your mobile device or can be used on our website at www.salmonarm.ca/curbside.